

AFRICABIMA PRIVACY POLICY

Africabima (including its direct and indirect subsidiaries) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Policy (and any other documents referred to on it) sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, that you provide to us, or that is otherwise made available to us will be processed by us.

This Privacy Policy will inform you as to how we look after your personal data when you hold an account with us, use our products or services, or visit our website (regardless of where you visit it from) and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

This Privacy Policy may be amended or updated from time to time to reflect changes in our practices with respect to the processing of personal data, or changes in applicable law. It is important that you read this Privacy Policy together with our terms and conditions, and any other policies and notices we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This Privacy Policy supplements other notices and related policies and is not intended to override them.

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, the following definitions apply:

- “Applicable Law” means the Constitution of the Republic of Kenya, all Acts of Parliament including regulations, rules, guidelines, guidance notes issued pursuant to any Act of Parliament, legislative and regulatory requirements, and codes of practice applicable to the processing of personal data and/or applicable to a data controller or data processor as may be amended from time to time;
- “Personal Data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (hereinafter “Data Subject”). For clarity, an identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of such a natural person;

- “Controller” means the natural or legal person, authority, organization or other agency that makes decisions individually or together with other parties regarding the purposes and means for processing personal data;
- “Africabima” includes all the subsidiaries and affiliates of Africabima (hereafter referred to as “Africabima”, “we”, “us” or “our”);
- “Processing” means an operation or activity or set of operations or activities performed on personal data whether or not by automated means;
- “Processor” is a natural or legal person, authority, organization or other agency that processes Personal Data on behalf of the Controller.
- “Sub-processor” is the contractual partner of the Processor, engaged to carry out specific processing activities on behalf of the Processor;
- “Third Party” means a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the Data Subject, Controller, Processor, Sub-processor, and persons who, under the direct authority of the Controller, Processor or Sub-processor, are authorized to process Personal Data;
- “Website” means the website of Africabima which is accessible through [<https://africabima.com/>];
- “Online and Mobile Platform Services” means the services we offer on our online and mobile platforms related to insurance business operations;

In addition to the definitions above, unless the context requires otherwise:

- Definitions of terms in our general terms and conditions shall be applicable to this Policy;
- The singular shall include the plural and vice versa; and
- A reference to any one gender, whether masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other; and

- All the headings and sub-headings in this policy are for convenience only and are not to be taken into account for the purposes of interpreting it.

2. THE DATA WE COLLECT

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of Personal Data about you which we have grouped as follows:

- Identity data which includes name, username or similar identifier, Identity card/Passport number, PIN number, photo, marital status, property details (relevant for insurance), family details including names of your children and parents, fingerprints, race, nationality, ethnic or social origin, color, age, title, date of birth and gender, and any other similar information;

5. MARKETING

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising. We have established the following personal data control mechanisms;

- Promotional offers from us: We may use your identity, contact, technical, usage and profile data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant to you. You will receive marketing communication from us if you have requested information or used our products and services and have not opted out of receiving such information.
- Third-party marketing: we may share your Personal Data with any third party for marketing purposes where we believe that the marketing information from such third parties will be relevant to you and where we have obtained your prior consent.

Opting Out

You can ask us or third parties to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by writing to us or logging into the relevant website and checking or unchecking relevant boxes to adjust your marketing preferences or by following the opt-out links on any marketing message sent to you or by contacting us at any time through the provided contacts.

Where you opt-out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to Personal Data provided to us as a result of product or service subscribed to, warranty registration, product or service experience or other transactions.

6. HOW WE USE “COOKIES” ON OUR WEBSITE

We may place electronic “cookies” in the browser files of your computer when you access our Website. Cookies are pieces of information that our website transfers to your computer to enable our systems to recognize your browser and to tailor the information on our Website to your interests. For example, if you previously visited our Website and inquired about particular services over the Website, cookies enable us to present information tailored to your account and/or those particular interests the next time you visit the Website. Moreover, we, or our third-party service providers or business partners may place cookies on your computer's hard drive that can be matched to other personal information we maintain about you to pre-populate certain online forms for your convenience. We also use cookies to analyze visitors' use of our Website. This analysis helps us better understand which areas of our sites are most useful and popular, to enable us to plan improvements and updates accordingly.

Many web browsers are automatically set to accept cookies. You may change your computer's web browser settings to either reject cookies or notify you when a cookie is about to be placed on your computer. Please note, however, that rejecting cookies while visiting our Website may result in certain parts of the website not operating as efficiently as if the cookies were allowed. Please refer to our Cookie Policy for more details.

7. THE USE OF HYPERLINKS

Other URLs may be referenced through hyperlinks on our website. Clicking on these links may open webpages operated by third parties not associated with us. These hyperlinks are for the dissemination of information and for you to have a good user experience.

By clicking on a hyperlink, you will leave the Africabima webpage and accordingly, you shall be subject to the terms of use, privacy and cookie policies of the other website that you choose to visit. By navigating to an externally linked website on the Africabima webpage, you will be exiting our website and you will be exposed to new terms of use, privacy policy and cookie policies of the website you have visited. We do not in any way promote, recommend, endorse, guarantee or approve third-party products and services offered through hyperlinks for external web pages. Material or content found in hyperlinks for external websites is not in our control and data processing is in accordance to their privacy policy.

8. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your Personal Data and special category data for the purposes for which we collected it as indicated in this Privacy Policy or for reasons we give you during the collection of the data. If we need to use your Personal Data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and seek your consent where necessary. Please note that we may process your Personal Data without your knowledge or consent if this is required or permitted by law.

9. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may disclose your Personal Data to other entities, the affiliates of Africabima, for legitimate business purposes (including providing services to you and operating our sites and systems), in accordance with applicable law. In addition, we may disclose your Personal Data to:

- Government (including law enforcement) authorities and regulators (e.g., insurance regulatory authorities);
- Other financial institutions through which your transactions are processed;
- Other companies and financial institutions that we work with to provide services to you (e.g., insurance underwriters, reinsurers, credit card service providers, technology service providers, credit reference bureaus, employers, debt collection agencies and outsourced services vendors);
- Fraud prevention/detection agencies, private investigators, agencies tasked with conducting surveys on behalf of Africabima;
- Third parties with accruing legal obligations e.g. Trustees and executors, guarantors, anyone holding a power of attorney to operate an account on your behalf and joint account holders;
- Third parties with reference to acquisition, merger, asset sales, restructuring or by legal obligation or otherwise. We may also transfer your personal data to any of our subsidiaries, new owners, or successor entities, or in case of a change of business; your personal data may be used in the same way as in this Privacy Policy;

- Third parties who are service providers acting as processors, and professional advisers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and those who provide consultancy, legal, insurance and accounting services.
- Restricted or publicly accessible government repository as a verification procedure in compliance with regulations.
- Regulatory authorities, police or security agencies, courts of law or statutory authorities in response to litigation and demand issued on legal/regulatory grounds in accordance to the law.
- Agencies tasked with conducting surveys on behalf of Africabima.
- Emergency and disaster response providers in cases where a person's health and safety are at stake when an emergency call is made (relevant for certain insurance claims).
- Persons involved in delivering Africabima products and services you use or order.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your Personal Data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your Personal Data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your Personal Data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

10. TRANSFER OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE KENYA

We may need to transfer or store your information in another jurisdiction to fulfill a legal obligation, for our legitimate interest and to protect the public interest. Insofar as is required for providing our services, we use third-party service providers who are located outside Kenya or store your information (including your sensitive personal data) outside Kenya.

When we, or our permitted third parties transfer or store information outside Kenya, we or they will ensure that it is lawful and that it has an appropriate level of protection, including transfer to jurisdictions that have established data protection laws, and entering legally binding agreements to ensure the security of your Personal Data.

Where your information is transferred to affiliates of Africabima in other countries, we ensure that your Personal Data is protected by requiring that they follow the same rules when processing your Personal Data. We may also transfer your information across country borders where you have consented to the transfer. If we transfer your information outside Kenya in other circumstances (for example, because we have to provide such information by law), we will use best endeavors to put on place appropriate safeguards to ensure that your information remains adequately protected.

11. HOW WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SECURE

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your Personal Data from being lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your Personal Data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your Personal Data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

12. HOW LONG WE SHALL RETAIN YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We will only retain your Personal Data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your Personal Data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect of our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the Personal Data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your Personal Data, the purposes for which we process your Personal Data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including contact, identity, financial and transaction data) for a minimum of seven years after they cease being customers. Our internal policy as amended from time to time may also require us to keep customer data for a longer period.

In some circumstances, we will anonymize your Personal Data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

13. DATA SUBJECT'S RIGHTS

Subject to legal and contractual exceptions, you have rights under applicable laws in relation to your Personal Data. These are listed below:

- Right to be informed that we are collecting your personal information and how we are processing it;
- Right to rectify your personal data where it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- Right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data. However, we may continue processing your personal data for legitimate interests or legal grounds;
- Right to object to processing of all or part of your personal data. However, we may decline your request if we are obliged by law or entitled to do so;
- Right of erasure of your personal data held by us, noting that we may continue to retain your information if we are entitled to do so or obliged by law;
- Right to access your personal data in our possession;
- Right to not be subjected to profiling or automated decision making in regards to processing of your Personal Data. However, we may decline your request if we are obliged by law or entitled to do so;

- Right to request your personal data to be processed in a restricted manner. Note that we may continue processing data and reject the request if we are entitled to or are legally obliged; and
- Right to data portability in a manner we may deem appropriate such as electronic format;

Exercising Your Data Protection Rights: We are committed to ensuring that you can easily exercise your data protection rights in compliance with applicable regulations. To exercise any of the above rights you can make a request through the Contact Us page on the website, by populating and submitting to us the Data Subject Rights Request Form that can be downloaded from Here (Placeholder, provide link to form), or by contacting our Data Protection Officer (DPO) using the contact details provided in this Policy. If you believe that we have not adequately addressed your data protection concerns, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the appropriate regulatory authority. Our Data Protection Officer will guide you through the complaint process.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your Personal Data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that Personal Data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within reasonable time. Occasionally it could take us longer if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

14. COLLECTION OF PERSONAL DATA ON CHILDREN

Protecting the privacy of children is of utmost importance to us. Africabima recognizes that processing children's data carries inherent risks due to its sensitive nature, hence the need for heightened protection. As minors lack the legal capacity to provide informed consent and are vulnerable to identity theft, fraud and exploitation, the Platform has implemented robust safeguards to ensure children's privacy and data security.

At Africabima, we only process personal data relating to children as provided by their parents or legal guardians. We acknowledge the importance of parents' and legal guardians' consent and supervision in children-related platform activities, and therefore require that they provide their signature as authorization and/or consent for the use of minors' details for the provision of the Platform's products and services, or involvement in the Platform's activities. If you believe that we have inadvertently collected Personal Data relating to a minor, please contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) using the provided contact details.

15. INTERNAL COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURE

We take data protection seriously and strive to address any concerns promptly and effectively. If you have concerns regarding the handling of your Personal Data, you can reach out to our Data Protection Officer (DPO) using the contact details provided in this Policy.

Upon receiving your complaint, our DPO will initiate an internal review process to investigate and resolve the issue. We will respond to your questions or concerns within seven (7) days of receipt. If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of our internal resolution process, you have the right to escalate your complaint to the appropriate regulatory authority.

16. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE PRIVACY POLICY

Africabima reserves the right to discontinue any agreement in case of compliance failure for the provisions in this Privacy Policy and decline any application for information that contradicts this Privacy Policy.

17. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

A copy of this policy can be downloaded Here (Placeholder, provide link to downloadable policy). We may modify or update this policy from time to time. Where the changes will have a fundamental impact on the nature of the processing of your data or your rights, we shall notify you in advance.
